

County Correctional - H.R.T. HOSTAGE RESCUE TEAM

Certification Course®

COURSE LOCATION: Scheduling Nationwide

COURSE DATES: TBD

COURSE PROFILE: This is the first national program released exclusively for “county corrections.” The program is based on national research following 10 years of CERT training programs delivered to counties nationwide. This 3-day (24 hour) day & night operations certification training program is designed to effectively train select personnel as HRT members to judiciously manage potential hostage rescue operations within a county jail facility. Extensive training in aggressive take-down techniques, dynamic & stealth facility team movement, rescue and downed officer methods will be intensively covered utilizing modern technological advanced less lethal weaponry. Officers selected for this training should be in superior physical condition and have extensive CERT experience. This course is extremely, mentally & physically demanding!

Topics Covered in the Program Include:

- Intensive practice, drills and scenarios in the proper preparation and implementation of an operational Correctional HRT Tactical Action Plan® for use in various areas of a facility utilizing a four-to-six-person team.
- Considerations in various HRT equipment requirements, HRT threat assessment analyses, HRT environmental logistics and known intelligence.
- Rescue tactics for downed officer(s) with protection & controlled movement will be extensively practiced with & without specialized equipment
- Realistic, hands-on use & employment of specialized 12 GA / 37MM less lethal, chemical, and diversionary munitions, Pepper Ball Gun, M-26 Taser for use in HRT operations.
- Numerous exercises and scenarios in both stealth & dynamic operations will be conducted in both day & night operations in and outside a facility.
