

Master Use of Force©

Police & Corrections

Instructor Certification Course

Course Location: Scheduling Nationwide

Course Dates: TBD

Course Profile: These programs are the most recognized and court defensible use of force certifications in the United States for 35 years. This extensive, high retention one week, 40 hour Use of Force training program covers all aspects of non-lethal & less lethal use of force techniques & tactics by today's police, sheriff & corrections officer. This up-dated and highly acclaimed program has been developed within Federal lawful parameters of use of force by police and corrections officers. Escalation & de-escalation of force is based on the Federal court defended "Ladder of Force Continuum" which has continually protected departments from costly liability and workman compensation issues resulting from inadequate training. Note: attendees must have prior or current use of force certifications to attend. All programs awarded five (5) year "backed in court" certification with unprecedented instructor/department support.

Training Agenda Addresses the Following Topics:

- DAY 1-2 Confrontational Avoidance Instructor; understanding the four types of anger, key verbal de-escalation techniques, pre-assault indicators, Control & Restraint Techniques – Instructor Certification understanding body mechanics, joint locations, body engine theory, dynamics of control & restraint; Hands-on easy-to-learn & retain control & restrain tech's for suspect/detainee handling; use of various types of restraints for movement/transport of prisoners, EDP's, juveniles, elderly persons and persons sprayed with OC or use of the Taser..
