

POLICE and Corrections CONTROL & RESTRAINT TECHNIQUES®

Instructor Certification Course

COURSE LOCATION: Scheduling Nationwide

COURSE DATES: TBD

COURSE PROFILE: This three day (24 hour) instructor level certification course is designed and developed for those agencies desiring to train an instructor and teach the effective, proven control & restraint techniques basic course or receive additional updated training in this important area. Since 1983 this nationally researched and continually updated course has been designed and developed to protect departments from costly liability and workman compensation issues resulting from inadequate training in the proper and judicious control of violent and passive subjects. Extensive training in the progressive use and application of handcuffs, taught as the most used piece of equipment on the duty belt, is thoroughly covered in any easy to learn, retain and teach format for instructors. The information presented is based on the national experience of thousands of police officers throughout the country.

Topics Covered in the Program Include:

- Use & Applications of Control & Restraint on the Ladder of Force Continuum
- Specific, high retention designed Control & Restraint Techniques including handling subjects sprayed with OC and other chemical agents
- Mechanics, use and applications of Handcuffs from various situations encountered in the field are based on actual recorded field incidents from FBI Officer Killed Summaries & Uniform Crime Report Statistics
- Specific techniques for handling violent Juveniles, Elderly and Psychiatric individuals
- Maximum of hands-on training with numerous situational scenarios are conducted
- Proper Documentation Procedures, Report Strategies and Departmental Policy Development
