

Street Combatives & Tactics

Instructor Certification Course[®]

COURSE LOCATION: Scheduling Nationwide

COURSE DATE: TBD

COURSE PROFILE: An extensive two day instructor level program specifically designed and developed for officers working under cover, tactical team members or other department assignments who may have to engage one or more highly aggressive subjects in lawful defensive condition with & without available weapons. Program content focuses on taking a subject(s) out with the use of your hands in a “lawfully defensive condition” where serious bodily injury may occur. Understanding attack/retreat space, environmental parameters, immediate weapons of availability and other tactics are fully covered in this highly physical, dynamic training program.

Topics Covered in the Program Include:

- Effects of psychological and physiological use of force with the hands in extremely dangerous conditions.
- Concepts of effective striking dynamics, body space parameters, strike locations for immediate incapacitation.
- Extensive hands-on drills & exercises in selective offensive conditions with the use of hands & feet. Simple easy to retain techniques are taught based on high retention through continual repetition.
- Training also includes low light and reduced vision scenario work.
- Written & practical examinations.
